

Ir. Wiwik Dwi Pratiwi, M.E.S, Ph.D.

Teacher and researcher

wiwik.d.pratiwi@gmail.com

wdpratiwi@ar.itb.ac.id

EDUCATION

PhD

Department of Town and Regional Planning, University of Sheffield, England, United Kingdom, 2005

Postgraduate (Master)

Faculty of Environmental Studies, York University, North York, Toronto, Canada, 1994

Undergraduate

Department of Architecture, Institute of Technology Bandung (ITB), Indonesia, 1988

CURRENT ACADEMIC WORK

Teaching: Design and Transformation; Tourism Impacts; Tourism Destination Planning; Community Based Tourism; Tourism Facilities

TUTOR AND SUPERVISOR

Undergraduate Studio Design; Architecture Master Thesis; Architecture PhD Dissertation; Tourism Planning Master Final Projects

QUALIFICATIONS

- Undergraduate: Department of Architecture, Institute of Technology Bandung (ITB), Indonesia
- MES: Faculty of Environmental Studies, York University, North York, Toronto, Canada, thesis in world-catalog, UCB library
- PhD: Department of Town and Regional Planning, University of Sheffield, England, United Kingdom
- The research during PhD program is published in a book entitled "Tourism in Traditional Bali Settlement: Institutional Analysis of Built Environment Planning" ISBN 978-3-639-12966-3 (abstract & content.pdf; presentation.pdf), click here or world-catalog to see the book.

The interest in planning process and tourism resulted in articles including:

- Heritage Tourism and Local Creative Economy
- Planning and Design Process in Traditional Communities: Cultural Consideration for Standard and Regulation
- (With Prof. Paul Wilkinson) Gender and Tourism in an Indonesian Village (link, abstract.pdf, journal)

For developing the knowledge on housing and settlements the research include:

- Land Development Theories and Institutional Analysis: The Operationalisation in Housing and Traditional Communities
- Developing Appropriate Theories for Tropical Eco-Settlement
- Settlements Transformation in Post-Tsunami Aceh and Pangandaran
- Housing and Settlements Learning Methods in Architecture ITB Bachelor Program.